

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job title: Composite Technician

Department: Aston Martin Car Build

Location: Banbury

Job purpose: Finishing Aston Martin race car components and body panels to a high quality standard. Ensuring quality of work and presentation of the department is to an agreed high standard.

Key responsibilities:

- In association with the senior technicians, trim composite components and build body panels to the required standard and specification, ensuring on time delivery.
- Recognise any parts requirements and report these to the senior technician responsible
- Professional interface with other departments.
- Meet challenging deadlines within Aston Martin assembly department.
- Some off site testing and shaking down of finished cars.
- Ensure health and safety legislation is adhered to.
- Positively addressing quality issues.
- Liaison with engineers when required.
- Maintaining consumable stock.
- Interact with supervisors working within race team and manufacturing, intern ensuring there are no un-necessary delays.
- Adhoc duties as specified by the car build supervisor.
- Ensure image and quality of the facility is adhered to, linked to the fact that the area is a leading edge, high tech facility.
- Operate as a member of an efficient team.

Education / qualifications

- Good secondary education.
- Computer literate.
- Experience of low volume or competition vehicle assembly environment.
- Preferred industry would be motor sport, automotive technology, aerospace or research and development.

Values

Can do	Must possess a positive attitude and display the ability to identify alternative solutions to problems
Relentless	In exceeding customer expectations and continually exceeding goals
Rigorous	A commitment to achieving the best solutions
Creativity	Endeavour to find new ways of doing things and learn from past experiences