

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Engine Builder - Technician

Job Purpose: You will be a time served light motor vehicle technician with at least five years dealership, motorsport or prototype/special project vehicle experience. Your qualifications will be as necessary to achieve above. Being able to T.I.G. and M.I.G. weld will be an advantage as will be the ability to use a lathe and mill. Knowledge of vehicle electrical/electronics systems would also be an advantage. You will have a clean full driving license. Your general attitude and tidiness will be methodical and diligent and you must be a team player and work with minimal supervision and use own initiative. The job is to build one off prototype vehicles for several manufactures and assist on various other projects. The need to drive on behalf of the company is required.

Requirements:

A proven track record in race engine and transmission building. This would include prototype builds and investigations. Your background would include both petrol and diesel engine work and transmissions should include 4x4 systems, automatics and semi automatics. A sound understanding of hydraulic systems and building of valve blocks and associated parts would be an advantage.